

EXCEPTIONAL PAINT
EXTRAORDINARY COLOUR

Dear all

Since Alitex took over the reins at M&L Paints we have seen some challenges, but the events of recent weeks are unprecedented. Because of this we just wanted to explain to you our current position.

Whilst our site is now closed to visitors, we are still able to fulfil online paint orders for the time being given that we have a small team who are able to safely mix and despatch paint.

DPD are adhering to new procedures that mean they won't require a signature upon delivery either. However, it's not clear how long we will be able to continue doing this so would advise that if you are considering ordering some paint, to do so sooner rather than later to avoid disappointment.

It is not an easy time for anyone, but I am determined that all at Alitex, Marston & Langinger and M&L Paints will continue to thrive beyond this storm.

Many thanks,
M&L Paints Team
